NUMBER 14

150 ATTEND B. OF T. MONTHLY BANQUET

CARNIVAL OFFICIALS GIVE MAIN TALKS

The monthly Board of Trade banquet held at the club rooms last week Thursday night was another banner occasion for that organization. Over 150 persons sat down to the long tables and enjoyed a chicken dinner served by a committee of the ladies of St. Mary's Altar society. Good things to eat came onto the tables piping hot and very delicious and the ladies were paid many fine compliments on the dinner. It was served by a group of young ladies all wearing sashes on which was printed "Grayling Boosters." At each place at the tables was a small pennant bearing the same motto.

President Emil Kraus left no stone unturned in making the event pleasant, inspiring and interesting. He and his committees worked hard in making the arrangements for the banquet and its success may be attributed to their efforts. The tables and the club rooms were exceptionally attractive for the occasion. It was gratifying to see so many out and especially so many who were not in the habit of attending these events. There were many young men and ladies present, some of whom will eventually have to step into the shoes of those who now are at the helm of the ship of destiny of Grayling.

Rev. Fr. Culligan gave the invocation and T. W. Hanson was the toastmaster. Fred R. Welsh was the first speaker and his theme was that "Boosting means the enthusiastic support and getting behind the community." He referred to his first visit to Grayling where he received the warmest kind of reception and said that ever since he has not forgotten it and that now he feels that there is no better place in which to reside.

Supt. R. R. Burns of Grayling schools said that he was favorably impressed by the warm welcome that they felt that they were a part of the community in reality. He told some applicable stories that were amusing and instructive and had bearings on the points he wished to emphasize. He stated that it was not the pupils alone that made a successful school, nor the superintendent and teachers, nor the school board nor the parents but instead the responsibility had to be borne by the community at large, each one of these component elements having an important influence. He said that the greatest assets Grayling has are not "The Pines," not the Reservation, not the school building nor court house but it is our boys and girls. "We must work together for the children of Grayling."

John Lake of Petoskey, a member of the Chamber of Commerce of that city gave out some strong suggestions that if followed out will find these communities working together as a whole. He said that any community that does not go beyond its own borders to boost is playing a lone hand and cannot hope for the long success they seek. He cited many examples about the obligations of one community toward another. People no longer come north to visit one city only but instead to visit all the northland. He said that he recently visited Governor Brucker in the interest of Grayling. Fish hatchery and that he found the Governor strictly in favor of keeping the hatchery here. Also, he said, that he was glad to find the Governor so favorable toward the appointment of T. W. Hanson for member of the Conservation commission.

Kenneth Duncan, managing editor of Bay City Times expressed the well wishes of his community and told of the warm friendly feeling that exists between the citizens of the two cities. He said that we not only are well and favorably advertised but that when people come here that we were able to prove that we have the attractions claimed. He was shown a few of the attractions while here that day when he visited several places including the Hanson State Military reservation where he saw about 20 deer along the route. Mr. Duncan gave an interesting and clear outline of the plans for the coming Eastern Michigan Water carnival that will be held in Bay City July 30th to August 1st inclusive. He told how the Water Carnival happened to get started and how that it has now become a permanent affair and growing by leaps and bounds in popularity. It's a big affair in which all Eastern Michigan is interested both morally and financially and not only benefits financially all Eastern Michigan but the whole state as well. There will be many new features for the next carnival that will make it greater and better than the one last year which was a wonderful success. Mr. Duncan is general chairman of this year's carnival. G. Wright Cooke, treasurer of the

BEFRIENDED DURING TIME OF TROUBLE, DEEDS PROPERTY

Sheriff Claims Only Paid For Services Rendered

Mrs. Annette Stannard, Frederic, now stopping in Detroit, and who was recently released from prison where she was sentenced by Judge Guy Smith after her plea of guilty to the charge of arson about a year ago; has brought charges against Sheriff and Mrs. Bobenmoyer for alleged fraud.

The Detroit News of last Sunday published the following article in reference to Mrs. Stannard's side of the question:

A charge that Jesse E. Bobenmoyer, sheriff of Crawford county, and his wife, Sarah, defrauded her of property valued at more than $10,000, was made Saturday by Mrs. Annette E. Stannard, 13351 Manning avenue, when she filed a petition in the Wayne Circuit Court, asking that an accounting be made of the estate, and damages awarded her to compensate for the fraud.

Mrs. Stannard, who is 64 years old, was sent to the Crawford County jail at Grayling, a year ago, after she pleaded guilty to a charge of arson. She was then clerk of Frederic Township and was arrested in March, 1930, following two fires in her home.

John W. Burke, of Frederic, was arrested with her. They confessed that Mrs. Stannard hired Burke to set the fires, so she could collect the insurance on her home. Both were imprisoned. Mrs. Stannard being released three weeks ago.

According to the petition, which was filed for Mrs. Stannard by Van H. Ring, her attorney, at the time of her conviction, she owned a house, several lots and a quantity of valuable medical instruments and books which had belonged to her brother, a physician. This property, for safe keeping, she deeded to Bobenmoyer and his wife, since Mrs. Bobenmoyer was her closest friend. Since her release, they have refused to return the property, or make an accounting, she charges, and she is now destitute, living with friends in Detroit.

LUMBERJACKS HAD GREAT TRIP

The Lumberjacks basketball team returned last Monday from East Liverpool, Ohio, after participating in the Sixth Annual Tri-State Basketball tournament.

The team left Grayling Wednesday enroute to Maple Rapids, Michigan, where they easily defeated the Territorial Panthers by the wide margin of 36-19. Immediately after the game the boys continued their journey, making frequent stops to advertise Grayling, the Capital City of Winter Sports.

The Lumberjacks arrived in East Liverpool Thursday about 11:00 o'clock a. m. Once settled at the leading hotel the boys set out to see the sights around town. East Liverpool borders the Ohio river and is on the dividing line between West Virginia and Ohio. Its population is 23,000 and it is located at the foot of the Allegheny mountains within easy reach of Pittsburgh.

Friday morning the Lumberjacks were interviewed by the President of Chamber of Commerce who was very enthusiastic in regards to the plans for the town to see the largest pottery plant in the world at Newell, West Virginia. His interest in Grayling was evident when station WJAS, Pittsburgh broadcasted that evening. The primary subjects were the Lumberjacks, Grayling the Capital City of Winter Sports and summer vacations.

The tournament opened at 6:00 p. m. at the Liverpool High School with forty-eight teams entered. The Lumberjacks drew a bye for the first round. At 11:30 o'clock the "Jacks" started their first game of the second round playing Tichenor Cleaners, Akron, Ohio, defeating them 23-11. Saturday morning opened the third round in the tournament, Grayling playing Girard College at 10:00 o'clock a. m. This game witnessed the downfall of the "Jacks", the fast college team winning by a score of 21-12.

A large crowd attended all the games which made the contest a success. The Tri-State trophy was won by the Faulk Feed, East Liverpool team, composed of Carnegie Tech College stars, defeating the Louis Humes by 29-31 which was also composed of 1930-31 Geneva College men.

The Lumberjacks were awarded medals for greatest distance and Rudy Harrison and Charles Wyllie for honorable mention. The officials of the tournament are looking forward to Grayling as the leading contenders of 1932.

The Lumberjacks wish to extend their thanks to all local business men who helped make this trip a success. Mr. and Mrs. Bobenmoyer to appear before Judge Webster in Detroit April 11th.

FREE MOVIE SHOWS FORD AUTO PLANT

SOUND MOTION PICTURE FEATURE OF EXHIBIT ARRANGED BY LOCAL DEALER

A sound motion picture graphically portraying the story of the Ford Motor Company and its widespread activities will be exhibited free of charge in a special Ford exhibit to be held at Ford Sales and Service, Monday and Tuesday, April 6 and 7. The show will be open to the public from 1:00 until 10:00 o'clock p. m. each day.

The picture, entitled "A Tour Through the Ford Factory," will show the gathering of raw materials, their arrival at the Rouge Plant in Dearborn, Mich., and the numerous interesting stages through which they pass in the process of making Ford cars and trucks. It is, in short, an education in the extent and meaning of modern volume production.

While an unseen voice explains each scene, the audience is taken on a tour of the plant, through the great blast-furnace building where ore is converted into iron; into the hot liquid into moulds; into the open hearth building where the iron becomes steel and is poured; a white hot liquid, into moulds; into the blooming mill where the steel ingots are made into bars; and into the rolling mill in which the long bars of white hot steel are reduced to definite sizes. Forty kinds of steel, each of a composition to serve a definite purpose, are used in the Ford car and truck.

The picture shows also the manufacture of glass in an endless unbroken strip, a process developed by Ford engineers; the machine shops in which parts for the car are manufactured; the pressed steel building with its gigantic presses; and the coke ovens and other units in which by-products are recovered to the extent of millions of dollars annually.

Throughout the picture one sees literally miles and miles of conveyors which take much of the manual labor off the backs of men. There are conveyors carrying newly arrived materials into the plant, others taking parts from one building to another, and, of course, the final assembly line, that famous conveyor on which the parts are put together to form the completed car.

In addition to the picture, there will be a representative line of Ford cars and trucks and display boards containing car and truck parts. The cars alone are well worth a visit to the show for they include body types to suit any taste and to meet any occasion. Particularly attractive are the de luxe cars in which upholstery appointments are of a kind and quality usually found only in more expensive automobiles.

All the body types are featured by the Ford's new beauty of line and color. The deep radiator, the wide generous fenders, and the graceful sweeping lines of the bodys contribute to a pleasing whole. The cars may be obtained in a variety of color combinations.

PRINCESS WATASSA HERE THIS WEEK

Princess Watassa, health envoy of the Michigan Tuberculosis Association, is re-visiting Crawford county this week and next to instruct school children in the principles of health living. Her work is done without expense to the schools, being financed by funds raised last December in the sale of Christmas seals.

Watassa, who made her first appearance in the county in September, 1929, when she spoke to the first six grades of the Grayling public school, impresses by means of Indian legends the value of fresh air, sunshine, exercise, sleep, and correct foods. Dressed in beautiful and highly symbolic Indian costume, she holds attention by her appearance as well as by her fascinating health stories.

Arrangements for her appearances in the county schools were made by Mrs. Ersa Wheeler, Children's Fund nurse, and John W. Payne, county school commissioner. As many of the children are being reached as possible. In some cases, groups of students from rural one and two-room schools are being brought to central points for the programs, to permit the greatest number to see and hear Watassa.

Fifteen distinct investigations of the municipal affairs of New York City are contemplated. When they are done, the next logical step will be an investigation of the investigations.

SCHOOL NOTES

Work on the Junior Class play has started and every effort will be made to push the project to completion so that the production will be ready for its bow across the footlights in the high school auditorium soon after Spring vacation.

The choice of a play has been made and a fairly definite cast is already at work learning the parts and holding rehearsals with a zeal that promises finished and well-drilled presentation. Miss Berry is in charge of the work and feels that every indication points to a successful staging. The cast at least takes their responsibility in a frame of mind which promises plenty of effort on their part. Plans for work during vacation are now being laid.

Miss Hermann, teacher.

Freeman Giffin of Detroit was a visitor in our room Tuesday.

We have just received 25 books from the State Library at Lansing to use in our library.

Our spelling marks today showed improvements. There were 23 "A's" and 4 "B's".

We have completed our study of Holland and are beginning to study about the country of Switzerland. We are going to try to make a small Swiss farm on our sand table.

In our reading class today we learned how "Felix" the popular movie cat was made. All of us tried to make cartoon animals. Some of them were very good.

We are getting along nicely with our work on the dictionary. We have learned where to find new words and how to tell some of their letter sounds.

We are making Bunny booklets for Easter.

A little gray pussy came to visit our room this month. His name is Pussy Willow.

DECORATORS FINISH WORK ON THEATRE

To Re-Open Saturday Night, April 4th

Waldemar Jensen and his crew of workmen just finished the job of decorating the interior of the Rialto theatre, after working there nearly five weeks. The writer visited the place and found it surpassing in beauty and attractiveness his fondest expectations. The decorators did their work well just as we knew they would and Mr. Olson may be proud to again open his wonderful theatre to the public.

The plans and color scheme are modified modernistic. Gold, silver, green and tan are the prevailing colors. With the walls of green and tan and woodwork of gold and silver and door panels of dark brown mahogany the lobby and foyer are strikingly rich and handsome. The cork panels of three colors and ceiling of two are of what are called "distemper" colors. Delicate green, burnt orange and bright tints, and rich gold and silver make up the color scheme in the auditorium, the panels being richly designed. The stage and exit doors are very modernistic in their colorings and designs.

We doubt if there is a prettier theatre anywhere than the Rialto, with its new decorations. The theatre will re-open Saturday night after being closed during Lent, with the play "Not Exactly Gentlemen" with Victor McLaglen.

DOINGS OF MICH. LEGISLATURE

The first step to provide insurance for the unemployed came with the introduction of a bill by Rep. Darin of River Rouge. Industrial and mercantile plants would pay a percentage of their payrolls and the workers would also contribute a percentage of their earnings. The state would provide a three-man commission to administer the fund. When laid off through no fault of his own, the worker would apply for compensation, based on his former wage, allowing enough to live on during slack times. The state's only outlay would be the expense of the commission.

After a prolonged debate, the House passed by a vote of 87 to 6, Rep. MacEachron's bill to tax bank stock. A hearing on the measure, backed by the administration, is scheduled in the Senate. It is estimated to raise close to $4,000,000 and is being rushed through because the 1929 law was declared unconstitutional and banks paid no tax. Gov. Brucker is expected to sign the measure sent to him making Armistice Day a legal holiday.

Disagree on Proposals. So many proposals continue to be made calling for expenditure of public funds that leaders of the Michigan Legislature have threatened to introduce of such measures at an early date.

The reaction towards new sources of tax revenue was reflected in the public hearing held on the old age pension legislation now pending. Rep. Charles Haight of Lansing had proposed a bill providing a $2 head tax to raise the approximately $1,000,000 necessary to pay the pension. Representative hall was crowded with people from all over the state favoring the pension, but there were few among them able to agree on a financing plan. The mayor of Detroit was emphatically against the head tax and intimated that the plan had been suggested as an easy way to kill the old age pension. A representative of a fraternal order that has advocated such a pension talked for an hour in favor of the legislation, but he was unable to make a suggestion as to how the money should be raised. A labor leader advocated placing the tax against personal property. Legislative leaders (Continued on last page)

STATE OF MICHIGAN

To the Circuit Court for the County of Crawford in Chancery: The petition of Oramel B. Fuller, Auditor General of the State of Michigan, for and in behalf of said State, respectfully shows that the list of lands hereinafter set forth and marked "Schedule A," contains a description of all lands in said County of Crawford upon which taxes were assessed for the years mentioned therein, and which were returned as delinquent for non-payment of taxes, and which taxes have not been paid; together with the total amount of such taxes, with interest computed thereon to the time fixed for sale, and collection fee and expenses, as provided by law, extended against each of said parcels of land.

Your petitioner further shows to the Court that said lands were returned to the Auditor General under the provisions of Act 200 of the Public Acts of 1929, as amended, for non-payment of said taxes for said years respectively, and that said taxes remain unpaid; except that lands included in said "Schedule A" for taxes of 1890 or prior years were returned to the Auditor General as delinquent for said taxes under the provisions of the general tax laws in force prior to the passage of Act 200 of the Public Acts of 1929, and which taxes remain unpaid.

Your petitioner further shows that in all cases where lands are included in "Schedule A" as aforesaid for taxes of 1890 or of any prior year, said lands have not been sold for said taxes or have been heretofore sold for said taxes and the sale or sales so made have been set aside by a court of competent jurisdiction, or have been cancelled as provided by law.

Your petitioner further shows and avers that the taxes, interest, collection fee and expenses as set forth in said "Schedule A," are a valid lien on the several parcels of lands described in said schedule.

Your petitioner further shows that the said taxes on the said described lands have remained unpaid for more than one year after they were returned as delinquent; and the said taxes not having been paid, and the same being now due and remaining unpaid as above set forth, your petitioner prays a decree in favor of the State of Michigan against each parcel of land therein described, for the several amounts of taxes, interest, collection fee and expenses, as computed and extended in said schedule against the several parcels of land contained therein, and in default of payment of the said several sums computed and extended against said lands, that each of said parcels of land may be sold for the amounts due thereon, as provided by law, to pay the lien aforesaid.

And your petitioner will ever pray, etc.

Dated February 10, 1931.

ORAMEL B. FULLER, Auditor General of the State of Michigan, for and in behalf of said State.

HIGHWAY-CONSERVATION MAPS
READY MAY 1ST

The combined Highway-Conservation map of Michigan, to be issued for the first time this year, is now in the hands of the printers and is expected to be ready for distribution about May 1.

The map is being issued jointly by the Highway Department and the Department of Conservation, will be in colors and will combine the functions of the maps formerly issued by the Highway Department showing trunk line highways, and the maps formerly issued by the Parks Division of the Conservation Department, indicating state parks, fish hatcheries, forests, game refuges and other conservation projects.

Informative articles concerning Michigan will be printed on the back of the map. A highway mileage chart and a state park information chart will be included.

The first printing will include 100,000 copies.

OLDEST FORD DRIVER

J. M. Crow, 89, of Ethel, Miss., the oldest Ford driver in Mississippi, traversed the historic old Natchez Trace in a covered wagon eighty-seven years ago.

As rugged today at 89 as the age in American history he so picturesquely typifies, J. M. Crow of Ethel, Miss., is the oldest Ford driver in Mississippi and one of the oldest in the United States.

When as a babe of two years he rode with his parents in one of a train of 30 covered wagons out of Cobb county, Georgia, into Mississippi, the old Natchez Trace followed by the brave little band was still infested by the swashbuckling ruffians whose bloody outrages gave that era its place in this country's history as "the outlaw years."

One of his vivid memories is hearing, as a boy of six, the news of General Scott's victorious assault on the heights of Chapultepec which ended the Mexican War in 1847, and his proudest memory is of honorable service as a Confederate soldier during the Civil War. When the southern cause collapsed, Crow was compelled to trudge 400 miles on foot to the old homestead at Ethel where he settled down to rear a family.

In the intervening years he has seen the lumbering stagecoach give way to the fast automobile and the comfortable motorbus, the soggy gumbo and rough corduroy roads of his childhood to the wide, paved roads of today, and although he was long past middle age before the modern automobile became commonplace he is as enthusiastic a driver as youngsters who can boast less than one-quarter of his years.

Five generations of Crow's family are frequently seen together in his Model A Ford, the second of its type Crow has owned and driven.

SUPERB RIDING, NEW LUXURIES
IN GREATER HUDSON TOURING SEDAN

This three-window five-passenger Greater Hudson Eight Touring Sedan is a splendid example of the new beauty in Hudson's 1931 offerings. Symmetry of line, harmony of color and appointments carried down to the smallest detail stamp the new Hudsons as distinctly quality cars.

Fender wheel mountings for spare tires are standard equipment with trunk rack at the rear also standard. Engineering advancements in motor chassis have increased the power and flexibility of the motor.

The wealth of the United States amounts to about $3,000 per head. If you believe that it is distributed strictly on that basis, however, try to use the per capita wealth argument in the collection of an old bill.

MEADOW BROOK FARM
REAL FOOD FACTORY
OF BUSINESS TYPE

An Agricultural Unit With "Business Farming" Applied, Operated by Prominent Michigan Woman.

Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson Owns Fourteen Hugged Acres of Beautiful Rolling Land in Oakland County and It's a Farm of Which Michigan Can Justly Be Proud.

Michigan has many very beautiful farms noted for their individual production, along one definite line—cherry, apple, peach, sheep, cattle or poultry products, but few of the large agricultural units of this state are operated along general lines. Meadow Brook farm is in Avon and Pontiac townships, Oakland county, comprises 1,400 acres and is owned and operated by Mrs. Alfred G. (Matilda R.) Wilson, better known in civic, political and industrial circles than agricultural. Mrs. Wilson was nominated at the recent Republican state convention for membership on the State Board of Agriculture, the body that has charge of the Michigan State College at East Lansing, known as the oldest agricultural college in the United States. This creates a public interest in the agricultural activities of Mrs. Wilson.

"Meadow Brook" farm is located amidst the hills, valleys and swales of Oakland county. With many pieces of native woods still standing, there are approximately 1,000 acres of meadows and cultivated fields, all farmed along modern lines, strictly an agricultural food factory. From the hundred acres of orchard come apples, peaches, cherries and pears; the extensive gardens furnish vegetables for Meadow Brook Hall, the year round home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, the farm help and tenants, with a surplus to be marketed in nearby villages. There are hundreds of pounds of butter each month, product of the Guernsey herd through the sanitary farm dairy; crates of eggs and dressed poultry going to the same market. Very little grain is sold from the tilled acres for each year Mrs. Wilson purchases young cattle in car lots from Western stockyards to consume all of the surplus raised. Hogs and sheep, however, in addition to the cattle, furnish a year round outlet for the grains produced.

There is now in the making at "Meadow Brook" farm one of the outstanding Guernsey herds in the midwest, the foundation being composed of young cows imported from the island of Guernsey, England. The sire is Leavitt's Laddie, of Overlook farm. The pedigreed stock imported by Mrs. Wilson is of the highest type of this breed of cattle and will be shown at the Michigan state fair and other live stock exhibitions during the year.

The live stock at "Meadow Brook" also includes a small herd of Angus cattle raised for beef purposes and several car loads of young stock purchased in the fall and fed through the winter. This bunch of young Herefords will be marketed in June.

Hogs are all O. I. C. registered stock, including breeding sows producing around one hundred head of young each year. The sheep herd does its part in making Meadow Brook farm a going industry, a regular food factory twelve months in the year and then there is the poultry, just the regular bi-product of a genuine Michigan agricultural project.

Three "Little Fellows" from the island of Guernsey.

One view at "Meadow Brook" that would please the sight of any old fashioned farmer is the sixteen work horses, not pedigreed stock, but genuine farm animals who have as their aids in cultivating a thousand acres of land two tractors and other power machinery.

"Farming is a business," is the word passed out by Mrs. Wilson through the farm manager, John Cline, down to the dozens of men who till the fields, look after the livestock and keep this agricultural industry a going concern. So the Michigan State College, the oldest agricultural school of America, will acquire a member of its control board, one who practices what they preach, "Farming is a business."

The supreme court shall, upon the record so submitted, affirm the conviction or reverse the conviction, and grant a new trial.

Section 7. Immediately upon the issuance of such warrant, the clerk of the court shall, by registered mail, forward the aforesaid warrant to the warden of said prison, who shall upon receipt of said warrant, make return to the clerk of the court where the judgment of death was rendered, showing receipt of said warrant by said warden, which return shall be filed in the office of said clerk and become a part of the records thereof.

Section 8. Upon the receipt of such condemned person by the warden of the Michigan State Prison, said condemned person shall be confined therein until the time for his execution arrives or until reversal of the conviction by the supreme court, and while so confined all persons except the necessary prison officials and attendants shall be denied access to him, except his physicians who may be admitted to see him when, in the judgment of the warden, medical attendance may be necessary for the physical well-being of the said condemned person, and with the further exception that lawyers, relatives, friends and spiritual advisers of the condemned person may be admitted to see and converse with him at all proper times and under such reasonable regulations as may be prescribed by the board of control and warden of the prison.

Section 10. If the condemned person shall escape after sentence and before his delivery to the warden as herein provided, and be not re-arrested and returned before the time fixed in section five-a for his transportation to the State Prison, then any person may arrest him and return him to the jail of the county in which he was convicted and sentenced, and thereupon a judge of the court of such county having jurisdiction, on application and directed to the warden of the Michigan State Prison, commanding him to proceed at the time and place named in said sentence, which time shall not be less than sixty or more than ninety days from the date thereof, to execute the sentence of death by electrocution, as provided in section six hereof, and shall forthwith issue a warrant of commitment and direct the transportation of the said condemned person to the Michigan State Prison at Jackson as hereinbefore provided.

Section 11. In the event of the pardon of the condemned person or the commutation of his sentence by the Governor, no execution shall be had. In all cases, when the sentence to death has been executed, the warden shall return the warrant of commitment herein required to the clerk of the county in which said conviction was had and sentence was pronounced with a full statement of all his acts and doings thereunder endorsed thereon, which said warrant and return shall be filed by said clerk and become a part of the records of said court and cause. In the event that any condemned person shall be pardoned or his sentence commuted before the time fixed for his execution, the warden shall make report of that fact on the warrant of commitment as herein provided. Such report of death shall be accompanied by a death certificate signed by two physicians including the prison physician.

Section 13. If a woman who has been sentenced to death as herein provided appears to be pregnant, and the physician of the prison shall certify in writing to the warden that in his opinion such woman is pregnant, the warden shall forthwith give notice of such a fact to the judge of the court in which the conviction and sentence was had and made and also shall deliver a copy of such certificate of such physician to the said judge. Such judge shall thereupon appoint a time at which an inquiry into the fact of such alleged pregnancy shall be made at said prison, and shall forthwith summon three disinterested legally qualified physicians of the State of Michigan to make examination and inquiry concerning the facts of said alleged pregnancy. Notice thereof shall be given to the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the judgment or conviction was rendered, stating the time and place of such inquiry. The report of said physicians shall be in writing and under oath, and shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the court in which said judgment of conviction was rendered, and a duly certified copy thereof, under the seal of the court, shall be forthwith transmitted to the warden of the Michigan State Prison, and the fees and expenses of said physicians and expenses of the prosecuting attorney shall, when approved by the circuit judge pronouncing such sentence, be paid from the general fund of the county in which the condemned person was convicted.

Section 14. If it appears by the report of said physicians that such woman is pregnant, a judge of the court in which such conviction was had and such sentence pronounced shall suspend the execution of the said sentence and shall transmit a copy of the report of said physicians and his order of suspension duly certified by the clerk, under the seal of the court, to the Governor and the warden of the Michigan State Prison. If said woman is delivered of child, or after the Governor from a report of three disinterested legally qualified physicians of the State of Michigan becomes satisfied that she is no longer pregnant, he shall forthwith issue a warrant appointing a time for her execution, and such execution shall take place at the time and in the manner provided by this act.

Section 15. Immediately after the execution, the body of the convict shall be examined by two physicians to be designated by the warden, one of whom shall be the prison physician, and said physicians shall make and execute a death certificate under their hand, which shall be attached to the return of the execution by the warden as provided in section twelve of this act.

Section 16. It is the legislative intent that this act shall not be construed to alter, affect or abate any pending prosecution, or prevent prosecution hereafter instituted under said section sixteen thousand seven hundred eight of the Compiled Laws of nineteen hundred twenty-nine, for offenses committed prior to the effective date of this act; and all prosecutions pending at the effective date of this act may be continued or instituted under and in accordance with the provisions of said section sixteen thousand seven hundred eight of the Compiled Laws of nineteen hundred twenty-nine.

Section 17. THE AMENDMENTS

The voters of Michigan will be confronted with three amendments to the state constitution when they go to vote next Monday. These are published on page 3 in this issue of the Avalanche in full. This will enable the voters to study them over before voting.

The first one is "Authorizing State to improve or aid in the improvement of landing fields."

The second amendment would "Authorize the State to borrow money and issue bonds therefor for the purpose of paying or refunding outstanding bonded indebtedness."

The third and last but not the least is the "Capital Punishment" amendment.

The first two are economic measures and have the endorsement of Governor Brucker, who has shown himself intelligent, fair-minded, honest and, we believe, is doing everything he can for the good of the State of Michigan and the taxpayers.

The Capital punishment amendment has Gov. Brucker's endorsement. His experience with crime during his many years as a prosecuting attorney and as attorney general of Michigan should qualify him to judge whether or not such a law should be enacted. Vicious criminals today are at large in our land. Most of them would not hesitate to take the life of anyone who may stand in the way of their criminal pursuits. While we see little of this in this vicinity of the state, still we cannot help but realize that something must be done to lessen banditry and racketeering. Property and human lives are unsafe on the highways and even in private homes when the criminal is on the job. Enforcement officers everywhere seem to feel that more drastic punishment is needed for "killers."

TOWNSHIP CANDIDATES

We also present a list of Grayling township candidates. (See page 6.) Space will not permit us to publish the tickets of other townships. However these already have appeared in this paper at an earlier date. Grayling voters may here study their ballot over and make their selections.

Space will not permit the publication of the state and county ballot. On this there are four party tickets—Republican, Democratic, Socialist and Prohibition parties. The state candidates are for the office of members of the Supreme Court; regents of the University; superintendent of Public Instruction; member of state board of education and members of state board of agriculture. On the same ballot is the candidate for the office of county school commissioner.

WE HEAR a number of stories against some of the candidates for election, most of which, if honestly investigated, will be found to be untrue. It doesn't pay to believe all the things told you at election time. In determining for whom to vote it is good sense to judge upon the merits of candidates from what one actually knows about them. Remember that almost any campaign worker is going to give you the rosy side of the story about his candidate. Just tell them, "Oh, yeah," and forget it and, when it comes time to vote, use common horse sense in marking the ballot. If all will do that then there will be no cause for remorse—we will have done our duty as we believed it should have been done.

DON'T FORGET that your neighbor though he differs from you politically, may be just as honest in his convictions as you, that this is a free country where freedom of opinion is one of the biggest of the broad foundation stones of our government, and there would be an end of that form of government without it. Be tolerant, therefore, or rather not tolerant but rational, patriotic and good natured. Stand by your convictions and let your neighbor stand by his if so disposed. Keep cool. Argue politics if you will but do it calmly and reasonably, and bear this fact always in mind, that just as you have made up your mind unalterably as to the way which you are going to vote, ninety-one hundredths of the population has done the same thing.

Some of these parlor economists make us laugh. In one breath they will advise the farmer to raise less grain and in the next will upbraid him for spending so much time in his flivver and not staying at home to attend to his crops.

Cheer up; on account of increased orders, one New England textile mill is advertising for more operatives. Maybe it will spread around.

It will soon be possible to go from New York to San Francisco by air in thirty-one hours. And to think that when Justice Holmes was a boy they were doing it in covered wagons.

Most people seem to think just now that the depression will never end, which is an indication that it is just about as bad as it can get.

INFANTILE BRUTALITY

The following supposed joke from the sport column of the Charlotte Republican, may be intended as some more of that paper's anti-capital-punishment propaganda, but the writer is inclined to think it but a case of poor proofreading:

Pretty Secretary—"Your little girl wants to kill you over the phone."

Busy Employer—"Take the message. I'll get it from you later."

WATCH YOUR STEP

The same publication prints an excerpt from a legislative letter by State Representative Miles M. Callaghan of Reed City, in explanation of the capital punishment law which is to be submitted to the qualified electors at the polls next Monday, and a partial paragraph from Mr. Callaghan's explanation is here given:

"All discretion is taken from the judge and jury as to WHO (the capitals are ours) shall be executed. The law is arbitrary. No extenuating circumstances—the GOOD CHARACTER (the capitals are ours) of the accused or any circumstances surrounding the COMMISSION OF THE CRIME (the capitals are ours) can be considered. Every citizen of Michigan is put in the same class with the professional hired killer and gunman and the judge and jury HAVE NO DISCRETION in the matter whatever."

With no other alternative (according to the views of the above gentleman) than facing a "discretionless" judge and jury if this act becomes a law the writer would suggest that EVERY CITIZEN of Michigan, who is jealous of his GOOD CHARACTER, and who has a reputation to being classed with PROFESSIONAL HIRE KILLERS and GUNMEN—should carefully "watch his step" and refrain from premeditated (or any other) killing of his brother man (or sister woman) and there'll be no need to worry as to the virtues of the hangman's noose or the electric chair in closing the career of THE MURDERER.

A GOOD JOKE SPOILED

The Space Filler thought he had the foundation for a good joke last Thursday evening as in passing Hans's restaurant he spied one of the refreshment committee from the Board of Trade's banquet, seated at a front table and placing an order with Al for some "cats"—(did look funny, didn't it)—but the truth was that the refreshments served by the ladies at the Board of Trade's club rooms were so good and the number of guests so large that everything was cleaned up without any thought for those who served the feast.

WHY GIVE HIM THE AIR

The dailies have been giving a lot of space to killer Burke who was arrested in St. Joseph, Missouri, and is being brought back to St. Joseph, Mich., to stand trial for killing a policeman, and the Detroit Sunday Free Press in speaking of Attorney General Voorhies' participation in the trial, makes the following amusing statement:

"Mr. Voorhies said that his office would AIR Prosecutor W. M. Cunningham, of Berrien county, in the trial of Burke..."

I WILL APPRECIATE YOUR VOTE ELECTION APRIL 6TH

(Advertisement)

To the People of Crawford County, Men and Women:

It has been acknowledged by a large number of the citizens of Crawford county, men and women representing our industrial and educational life, that my work as an official of the county, deserves no serious criticism.

A number of false statements have been called to my attention, the purpose of which I cannot understand, that I shall endeavor to answer as briefly as possible. My record book which is in my office for the public to observe, shows that I visit each school once annually as the statute requires. I visit a second time only when I am called. This is for the benefit of the taxpayer for a commissioner receives 10c per mile when he travels for business purposes. However no mileage is charged on my trips to Grayling.

It is not within the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Schools to close a school. The trustees of Frederic closed the Deward school after providing school privileges in Frederic for the children of this locality. The school trustees' plan was accepted by the Department of Public Instruction at Lansing.

It seems evident from personal contact and from the result of the Primary that there was a reasonable number of the members of boards of education standing by their commissioner.

It is my belief that the public will see plainly that if these injurious statements, made by a few of our people, were true, they would have been mentioned before. The fact that they are mentioned now as political propaganda, help to prove their falsity and to reveal the purpose of the instigators.

Having a firm confidence in the judgment and loyalty of the citizens of Crawford county, I remain,

Faithfully yours,

JOHN W. PAYNE,
 Commissioner of Schools.

Frank E. Robinson,
 C. S. T. C., Mt. Pleasant,
 Mich., Sept. 18, 1929.

To whom it may concern:

"I take great pleasure in saying a few words concerning Supt. John W. Payne, Frederic, Mich. I have known Mr. Payne, very intimately, for the past fifteen years, and feel that I have a correct knowledge of his character and ability."

First of all, he has ability and good common sense. He knows how to deal with people. He is a fine organizer and a good executive. When John Payne starts something, it is always completed. I have heard him rated as one of the best County School Supts. in the state. I have visited his high school and know from first hand experience that he is a fine Supt. of Schools.

As a man in the community he ranks high. He has always identified with good causes and contributes of his time and means for such. He is a real "friend" to boys and girls and has their confidence, love and respect. His wife is a lady of culture, ability and refinement and she always stands with him in all of his endeavors.

No school board will make a mistake that engages the services of John W. Payne.

Most sincerely yours,
 F. E. Robinson,
 Dept. of Commerce, C. S. T. C.

Postal Card Writing Contest. There was a lot of interest and real effort made in the contest for writing the words "The Red Arrow Place" the greatest number of times on a postal card or card the size of a postal card.

Cards were submitted early in the contest that looked like winners with the lines written two to three hundred times, but the number kept up an amazing increase until finally Mrs. Charles Corwin filed her effort with the almost unbelievable record of writing the line 1303 times.

The next nearest contestant was Miss Francis Jane Corwin with 757 lines and Ben Melde was third with 757 lines. That's writing pretty fine and lines. That's writing pretty fine and lines. That's writing pretty fine and lines. That's writing pretty fine and lines.

BUS COMPETITION HITS RAILROADS

Bankers Association President Asks if Unfair Aid Is Given Motorized Transport—For Rail Mergers.

NEW YORK—Fair treatment for the railroads in respect to highway motor competition was called for by Rome C. Stephenson, President American Bankers Association, in a recent address here. He also strongly endorsed "sound economic railway consolidation" and praised President Hoover for his initiative in this respect.

"I am very strongly of the opinion that one of the measures which would help materially to put back business where it ought to be is the Eastern four-system plan of railroad consolidation as announced recently following negotiations instituted by President Hoover," said Mr. Stephenson.

"Its adoption by the Interstate Commerce Commission would tend to stabilize the transportation industry, facilitate operation and exert a favorable influence on business in general.

"It is a fact well known to business leaders that our railroads are now facing a crisis. Not only do they need protective laws to meet competitive situations arising from increased use of our highways and waterways by other carriers, but they need unification such as the proposed four-system plan provides. Our President has acted wisely in assuming a leadership in this respect and his move deserves the support of every clear-thinking citizen."

Mr. Stephenson declared that the railroads have served this country "so superlatively well that we are prone in our public affairs to overlook our dependence upon them and our obligations to them. The past, present and future progress of the United States is inseparably bound up with their welfare. In neglecting just consideration for them are even more neglectful of the public's best economic interests."

A Question of Public Interest

"We are confronted with the question as to how much more the public economic interest, will stand an invasion of the welfare of the railroads by forces and difficulties not of their own creating and not within the scope of their own unaided powers to combat," said Mr. Stephenson. "I refer especially to new competitors that are undermining the hard-earned position of the railroads, not only with the aid of natural economic forces but also through the aid of government policies which, positively or negatively, tend to give these competitors undue advantages over the railroads."

"It goes without saying that the railroads have no right, nor claim any, so far as I have been able to discern, to complain at legitimate competition in the field of transportation, for the public is entitled to the best possible transportation at the lowest practical cost. But equally does it go without saying that this cannot be fairly brought about by using, or by failing to use, the taxing powers of government to enable competitive methods of transportation to do things they could not otherwise do as unaided private enterprises, particularly when such action impairs the invested rights held in good faith by great masses of our people in established enterprises that are serving the public well."

Mr. Stephenson said it was not his purpose to argue against such competitive transportation as the highway passenger motorbus and motor truck as such, when conducted under proper conditions and with due regard to public welfare and benefit. He declared, however, there is need for serious consideration whether such competition is being developed under conditions that are unfair to the railroads, because either the outright or obscure aid of government policy is the deciding economic factor in that competition.

Would Investigate Bus Traffic

Railroad rights of way, he declared, represent tremendous capital investments, on which the railroads have also heavy current costs to meet. "They pay every day a million dollars in taxes and most of this is on their rights of way," he said. "Also they spend daily over two million dollars additional for the proper maintenance of way."

He asserted that the motorbuses have not had to pay for their rights of way in any sense that the railroads paid for theirs.

"They have simply taken possession of public highways built by public funds, both state and national," he continued, "and they have extensively made those highways vastly less comfortable, less safe and less serviceable for private motorists and others who are contributing chiefly to their creation and maintenance."

Mr. Stephenson declared that all these matters should be thoroughly inquired into by competent public bodies, both state and national, with a view of determining the equities and basic public economic interests involved, particularly in respect to their effects upon the nation's railroads.

"I venture to say," he added, "that such inquiries would show whether it is to the public interest to let things remain as they are, whether the situation calls for a new basis of motorbus and truck taxes to satisfy the equities of the case or whether it would call for such drastic action as the exclusion of this traffic from our public general highways, and the requirement that, even as the railroads, it provide as a part of its own private capital investment its own rights of way and for its own maintenance of way out of operating income."

DOINGS OF THE MICHIGAN LEGISLATURE

Drops Tobacco Tax.

The hearing on a tobacco tax bill was productive of more definite results. Senator Peter Lennen of Genesee county, after hearing the numerous, varied and forceful protests, decided to withdraw the measure. Not a single taxpayer appeared to defend the measure. The senator announced he was convinced that it will not be possible to enact any kind of a sales tax on this session.

Gov. Brucker on the other hand has declared that it will be essential to adopt a specific tax of some kind to finance the $23,400,000 building program inaugurated two years ago. He is expected to send the legislature a special message on the subject.

The malt tax, in the form proposed by Senator Wood of Detroit, has been making some headway. It provides stiff fees for the manufacturers, retailers and distributors and the proceeds would be used to pay the state's debt to the counties for the care of indigent TB patients, amounting to $1,250,000. After the first year the proceeds would be used to build a sanatorium for the northern part of lower Michigan. In the form of an appropriation measure, the malt tax could not be submitted to a referendum. Also by tacking on these provisions for the expenditure of the tax money, its proponents expect to make it difficult for the Governor to veto the measure.

Change School Relief.

Senator Wm. F. Turner of Morley, who introduced the measure which provided $2,000,000 for distribution among the "poor" school districts, has introduced a bill providing a plan for a more equitable distribution of the money. It has been found under the existing law that some of the money went to many school districts not needing relief. The bill, lengthy and detailed, sets up $1,200 a year for graded school rooms, $1,600 for high schools, and the plan for relief is built up from this basis. Senator Turner has declared that 3,392 school districts will receive state aid under the plan.

Municipalities and villages of more than 1,000 population would retain title to tax delinquent lands within their limits under a measure which has passed both houses.

Park in Porcupine. Rep. Birk of Baraga has introduced a bill providing for the establishment of a 200-acre park in the Porcupine Mountains, in Ontonagon and Gogebic counties. He declared that the land would mostly be donated by the owners and asked that $5,000 be appropriated for surveys by the U. of M. and Michigan Tech.

Four bills affecting aviation have been introduced and will probably be ready for passage, subject to the vote of the people at the April 6 election on the question of state aid for aviation.

Rep. Frank Brown of Bellevue has introduced a bill requiring registers of deeds to permit the use of photography in making copies of their records and files.

The House has passed a bill authorizing the state to deed to the federal government certain lands for the construction of a seawall at Selfridge Field, near Mount Clemens. Juries and witnesses in court would be protected from photographers under a bill introduced by Rep. Armstrong of Detroit. The legislation is the outcome of experience at the sensational trial of the alleged Buckley murderers in Detroit.

Apportionment Tangle.

Just when it began to look as though a reapportionment law might be enacted, following the senate's 28 to 2 vote on the Harding bill, protests came from Detroit that its provisions were unfair and unconstitutional, halting the progress. Another proposal will be submitted by Rep. Bobt. Wardell of Detroit, attempting to give Detroit all of the four additional congressmen to which Michigan is entitled on the basis of its 1930 census. Senator Harding's original proposal was claimed to be unconstitutional because there was too great a discrepancy in the population of the congressional districts. It is set up. The probability is that the legislature will tangle up on the division, blocking all legislation, in which event Michigan voters would select four congressmen from the state at large in the 1932 election.

The legislative hearing of the Rubingh charges of paid legislators will likely be dropped, following an admission of the young assistant attorney general that he had no legal right to offer at the time he made the speech.

Married women would be allowed to establish homes separate from their husbands, under a bill introduced by Rep. Cowan of Port Huron. It was said this was to cover the case of Mrs. Miller, nee Binn M. West of Port Huron, national committee woman from Michigan, and married to a Chicago man.

Rep. Pack of Ann Arbor has introduced one bill to stop frats from levying taxes by deeding their property to their schools.

Affecting Motorists. Gov. Brucker and Secretary of State Fitzgerald are understood to have agreed on the form of legislation for the changes in the driving license provisions. The new bill provides for re-registration every three years, with new licenses to be issued at a cost of $1.00. New drivers must pass mental and physical tests. Revocation of the license is provided in case of conviction for drunk driving; involuntary manslaughter; or leaving the scene of an accident.

Tests would be made by local authorities and the application approved by the commissioner of public safety before the license could be granted by the secretary of state. A license appeal board will be provided, composed of the commissioner of public safety, secretary of state and the attorney general.

Wm. Green, Hillman, who introduced a measure providing for drastic regulations and taxes on commercial vehicles, has submitted a compromise measure following receipt of a statement of protest. The new bill provides a tax of $1.25 per hundred pounds of vehicle weight. The original measure would have provided a 200 per cent increase.

Insurance agents and representatives of stock companies have protested the bill proposed by Senator Rushton giving the State Insurance Department authority to regulate automobile insurance rates. Cong. Person and former state Senator Seth Pulver represented the mutual and reciprocal companies, contending that the stock companies, through lower rates in this state, were attempting to crowd the smaller companies out of the business.

Senator Campbell of Indian River has introduced a bill limiting a truck driver's employment to 10 hours in any 24-hour period. It provides also for the regulation of the use of trailers.

Curb State Board. The Senate has approved Rep. Armstrong's bill, passed by the House, providing that the chairman of the finance committee, and an additional member from each house, vote with the administrative board on emergency appropriations. A million dollars is appropriated for emergencies.

Farm Board to Abandon Efforts to Stabilize Wheat Prices

—Austro-German Customs Union

Stirs Protests.

B. EDWARD W. PICKARD

Sam H. Thompson

NO MORE attempts to stabilize the price of wheat by large purchases on the open market will be made under the auspices of the federal farm board after the 1931 crop is marketed, which probably will be done by May 31. This was the announcement of the board, whose new chairman, James C. Stone, and new member, Sam H. Thompson of Illinois, have just taken office. In making his decision known, the board pointed to its past purchases of large wheat stocks and asserted that "it cannot indefinitely buy more than it sells nor indefinitely buy at prices above the market and selling below cost."

No definite sales policy for its present big wheat holdings was announced by the board. There were indications, however, that should the farmers display a tendency to help themselves by restricting wheat acreage, the disposal of the 1930 crop holdings would be spread over a long period and sold slowly.

In the market the immediate effect of the announcement was of course a sharp break in prices. On the Chicago Board of Trade wheat futures prices reached the lowest level since 1906, July touched 90 cents and September went down to 90 cents.

There was quick recovery, however, when the stabilization association announced this plan: (1) the April 1, the corporation will quote a selling price of 92 1/2 cents a bushel, f.o.b. No. 2 hard winter wheat at Chicago for ordinary quality, with premiums asked for grain of high protein and quality. This price will be advanced 1/2 cent a bushel on April 10 and 1/2 cent a bushel every ten days thereafter until June 30, the date which marks the expiration of the current crop year.

In Washington it was asserted that it was now certain that farm relief legislation would be a major issue during the next session of congress, and something new in this line may be devised. Senator Borah is still bigly supporting the export debenture plan, and Senator Wadsworth of Indiana prefers the equalization fee scheme. Senator McNary also favors the latter program but says he cannot see how it will help solve the present problem in the face of the world wheat surplus. President Hoover is opposed to both these plans. Borah suggests that the present wheat surplus in this country be sent to China or destroyed. The European powers will not let it be dumped on their markets.

MAYOR JIMMY WALKER

WALKER of New York has been given the opportunity to examine and reply to the charges of misfeasance and nonfeasance in office filed against him by Gov. Franklin Roosevelt.

Franklin Roosevelt found himself in a difficult position when asked to oust the mayor or resign the matter to the state legislature for an inquiry, but he extricated himself by the simple expedient of forwarding the charges to Jimmy at his retreat in Palm Springs, Calif., and asking him to make answer when he returned to New York.

However, the states of the metropolis are to be thoroughly investigated, and Tammany may be approaching one of its emergency eclipses. The state senate, by the strictly party vote of 26 to 24, has passed a resolution for an investigation by a legislative committee consisting of three senators and four assemblymen, and after a protracted debate the assembly concurred with the senate, the vote being 76 to 70. The action of the senate was a surprise to the Democrats, for Mastick and Westcott, the two Republican Westchester senators who had formerly blocked such a resolution, suddenly shifted their votes and went along with their colleagues. Their change of mind occurred when William L. Ward, Westchester Republican leader, dropped his opposition to the inquiry following telephone conversations with prominent Republicans of New York city. The investigation is to include all departments of the municipal government and the inferior courts.

National importance is given this New York episode by its possible effect on the Democratic party's action in the national convention next year. It may greatly promote the chances of Franklin Roosevelt for the presidential nomination, or it may ruin them. He would be favored by those parts of the country in which the Democrats are politically dry if he were freed from the Tammany brand, but Al Smith is said to be cold to his candidacy, and National Chairman Raskob is reported to be strongly in favor of giving the nomination to Owen D. Young. Tammany itself is split into two factions, one headed by Mayor Walker and John F. Curry and the other by Al Smith.

For two years the Treasury department has been investigating charges that European safety match manufacturers were disposing of their products in this country at low prices to the injury of domestic producers. Evidently the charges were found to be true, for Secretary Mellon issued an anti-dumping order against the importation of safety matches from eight countries.

Such action previously had been taken against Russian matches. The latest nations affected are Finland, Norway, Estonia, Sweden, Latvia, Austria, Holland and Poland.

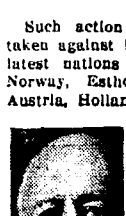

THROUGHOUT the battle maneuvers of the American fleet in Panama waters Secretary of the Navy Charles Francis Adams was a deeply interested observer. He returned to Washington with the firm conviction that, notwithstanding the development of aviation, the battleship is still the backbone of modern fighting fleets. "These big surface vessels are essential cogs in our naval fighting forces," said Mr. Adams, and his opinion coincides with those of the leading naval officers who participated in or watched the maneuvers.

In reports filed at the Navy department, such officers as Admiral William V. Pratt, chief of naval operations; Rear Admiral Joseph B. Reeves, and Rear Admiral Mark A. Bristol, chairman of the executive committee of the navy general board, agree that without battleship strength the United States would be powerless to prevent a major hostile movement across the ocean directed at this country.

GERMANY AND Austria have announced that they are about to consummate a customs union, and have caused great disturbances in the so-called "chancelleries of Europe." Great Britain, France, Italy and especially Czechoslovakia have protested against the move and according to report some of them have warned the two nations not to go ahead with their plan. The British position is that it is a violation of the protocol of 1922 in which the League of Nations reorganized Austrian finances and Austria agreed to give equal tariff to all countries. The French, Italians and Czechs fear the proposed union is the first step toward the political union of Germany and Austria, which would violate the peace treaty. The Czechs are testing the resolve of the other countries of the little entente to their point of view, and the two Germanic nations have invited Czechoslovakia, Rumania and Jugoslavia to enter the economic combination with them.

When the French, British and Italian ambassadors questioned Foreign Minister Curtius in Berlin, he replied in effect that Germany would not back down in its determination to put the tariff union into effect, but he assured them that this in no way heralded an eventual political unification with Austria. It was tolerably evident that Germany was willing to carry the matter to the world court at The Hague.

Irishman, French foreign minister, was placed in an embarrassing position for the Austro-German plan is really a start toward his great scheme of an economic union of all Europe in which there shall be no tariff walls.

ORGANIZED LABOR

in the United States is prepared to fight, with all the strength it possesses, any attempt to reduce wages. Such is the assertion of William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor. In a statement issued in Washington, he said: "Directions in wages have been favored and encouraged by bankers and some employers whose desire for standard profits has overcome their better judgment. If they are persisted in, a return to normal conditions will be delayed for two years or more. It is only through the development of the purchasing power of working people to the highest possible point that a market can be found for the goods which we are producing in an ever increasing volume."

In the light of these facts the American Federation of Labor convokes it to be its duty to resist, with all the influence and power at its command, any attempt on the part of employers to reduce wages. Furthermore it will be the policy of the American Federation of Labor to direct its efforts toward favorable conditions permit, toward those who have reduced wages during this period of unemployment, to restore them."

NATIONALISTS of Porto Rico received no encouragement from President Hoover when he landed at San Juan and delivered his first address, which was made to the largest legislature. On the contrary, he dwelt on the innumerable benefits the island had derived from its rule by the United States, predicted fine things for its future, and pledged the support and co-operation of his administration toward continued Porto Rican progress.

The island, said the President, has in the course of a single generation emerged from stagnation to a high place in the march of progress, and constitutes now "a magnificent example of what a capable and intelligent people may accomplish under free institutions." Mr. Hoover praised the efforts of Gov. Theodore Roosevelt to secure new channels of livelihood for the island's increased population. President Hoover's reception in San Juan and everywhere else his automobile tour of the island took him was enthusiastic.

Wednesday was spent at St. Thomas, capital of the Virgin Islands, where the people welcomed him respectfully and told him plainly the needs of the little group that has just been placed under the control of the Department of the Interior. That night the Arizona began a leisurely return to Norfolk.

MONTAGU NORMAN, governor of the Bank of England, came to the United States Friday on one of his frequent quiet visits, having little to say to the press, as usual. His arrival interested financiers deeply, for it was believed he would go to Washington and that then or soon thereafter President Hoover would issue the call for the international silver conference which was given authorization by the last congress. Silver has been in a parlous state for many months, for, while production has not greatly increased, the sales by India on its return to the gold standard, and by other countries for the purpose of lessening the silver content of their coinage, have glutted the market. In 1926 its price was 62 cents an ounce, and it now sells for about half that.

It was thought Mr. Norman might discuss the plan offered by Francis H. Brownell, chairman of the board of the American Smelting and Refining company. This scheme proposes that the United States, England including India, France including Indo-China, and as many other governments as possible, arrive at a "gentleman's agreement" that "no sale will be made for a stated period—say three years, or until further notice—of any silver now or hereafter owned by each government, at less than some fixed price, say, for example, 50 cents per ounce."

"Second—an understanding that those governments will purchase the amount of silver they are now authorized by law to purchase for subsidiary coinage, whenever the price of silver in the open market is below the figure to be agreed upon as above (50 cents per ounce, for example)."

"Third—as compensation for agreeing to do so and to prevent too rapid a fall—an understanding that the governments, and particularly India, may sell government owned silver whenever the price is more than, say, five cents above the figure agreed upon as above."
